FURNITURE

ECONOMY.

Cut Prices on Everything.

We Save you from 5 to 25 per cent. on all your Purchases.

We tell a great deal about our store but by no means all, hints only are possible. It's better so, otherwise you would lose much of the pleasure of discovery. The policy adopted by this store at the start was to serve its customers in the best possible manner, to handle only reliable merchandise, and sell it at the right rate, viz.: A lower price for better goods than any other store in the state, and we invariably do it. A pinch of profit for us, the rest is all for you.

It will Pay you to Trade in Quincy.

Read These Prices Carefully:

Cooking Ranges, Glenwood Ranges, Magee Ranges, Oak Parlor Sets, Parlor Sets, Oak Extension Tables, 12.00 to 40.00	Folding Beds, complete, $10.00 to 20.00

WATCH YOUR WATCH.

It is really one of the most wonderful achievements of human ingenuity. It doesn't take a large can of oil to lubricate it either, it just requires 1-10 of a drop to oil the entire watch for a year's service. But it has mighty great need of that 1-10 of a drop. Now don't let it go uncared for until the delicate pivots are worn by dirt, and beg to be cleaned and oiled anew, but take it to

NELSON W. GARDNER RESIGNS.

Break in the Board of Selectmen of the Town.

The resignation of Nelson W. Gardner, member of the board of selectmen from Weymouth, will take effect on June 1st. Mr. Gardner's reason for tendering his resignation was that he desired to leave the town in a ward which contributes more than taxes than all the other wards combined. He said that his financial and industrial interests are more than all the other wards combined at a disadvantage by most of the members of the board, and it is a consideration of important measures.

He further claimed that the peace and quiet of the town, the welfare of its people, and its honor, were at stake, and that justice, and the law, and equity demand that some shall be taken. This resignation is a great surprise to the town, and to Ward 2 the particular.

Transcription of High School Scholarships.

Transcription time the scholars from the east and north parts of the town, who attend the High school, have been transported in barges, but beginning Monday morning next the electric cars will convey them to the landing.

FORT HORSES FOR SALE.

On account of ill health, Joshua Wilkins will sell at auction on May 21st, his entire stock of horses numbering about forty including geldings, mares, blooded colts and broken horses.

Full particulars will be published in the next issue of this paper.

Grand Benefit Concert and Ball.

Mr. John Coughlin, a young man of the town, who has been ill, will be tendered a grand testimonial concert and ball on Saturday evening, May 11th, in his many friends of this town, Brockton, Quincy, Randolph, Hingham, etc.

The following talent will appear:

Dan Hale, character artist; E. J. Fowler, comic comedian; Thomas O'Connell, baritone; Miss Alice Tracy, soprano; Miss H. E. Jameson, contralto; Miss Anna Ash, reader; Mrs. James Dowd, reading; Misses Grinnell, singing; Misses Riley, Orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

John Coughlin, director and Charles F. Riley and James Nelligan as assistants, with an efficient corps of aids.

The reception committee will consist of John F. Dwyer, Patrick E. Corrigan, John Haviland, John Coughlin, John Croty and Richard Seelye, John Coyne.

May Party.

The Ladies' Soc. Circle connected with the First Universalist Church held their annual May party in Lincoln Hall last Friday evening and it was a grand social and musical affair.

The hall was handsomely decorated and about 25 couples participated in the festivities.

The trustees are Mrs. John E. Hunt, Mrs. Adeline H. Hunt, Mrs. C. Bryant Hunt and Mrs. Frank H. Magoon.

Previous to the dancing, there was a short service under the direction of Prof. William F. Holdgate of Providence, R. I.

The grand march was followed by the success of the May Queen, Miss Estelle Taylor.

The success of the affair is due to the following committee: Miss Anna Ash, Misses Riley, Misses H. E. Jameson, Miss Emma F. Clapp and Miss Carrie S. Robinson.

Reception to a Pastor.

A reception was given last evening to Rev. J. H. McDonald, the new pastor of the First Universalist Church, and his wife, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald.

McDonald is a native of New York City, and has made the vestry look very inviting, and the church is in excellent condition.

After the exercises refreshments were furnished and an hour or so spent in socializing, the orchestra remaining a programme of choice selections.—Newport News.

Both the pastor and his wife were to be congratulated on the fine hours they have found.

Tremont Theatre. Summer Season.

All the summer evenings, the summer season of the Tremont theatre, the second under the management of Harry Askin, which opens on Monday, the 27th, everyone will have the opportunity to witness such great performances of light opera, the comic, comfortable theatre, operetta, and pantomime, as are now to be had in Boston.

The summer season will open on May 21st, with a grand matinee.

The success of the affair is due to the following committee: Miss Anna Ash, Miss Emma F. Clapp and Miss Carrie S. Robinson.

W. H. COOK.

W. H. Cook, the popular pastor and his wife are to be congratulated on the fine hours they have found.

Death of Mrs. Santorini.

Mrs. Martha Shaw Hollis, daughter of Jonathan and Martha Hollis, passed away Friday May 3, at the old homestead on Main street, Weymouth, where she had resided from a severe attack of the grippe some years ago ending in partial insanity. Her death occurred at 11 o'clock this morning, the ceremonies being performed by Rev. Justin Van Cleve. The body was removed to the Tremont theatre, where it lay in state until the funeral services.

The parish connected with the Pilgrim church held a special meeting last Monday evening, in the vestry of the church, a large number being in attendance. Dr. A. D. Howland, rector, presided. Mr. G. A. Seabury, clerk. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing that proposed by the pastor, Rev. Allen B. Hudson, some time ago, in regard to giving a new name to the church in connection with the church building. The matter was thoroughly discussed and voted upon. The members were in sympathy with the movement they thought the building inadequate for the purpose of the church, and it was voted as has been already stated.

Mrs. A. Drake, and son Wallace, accompanied by the doctor's mother Mrs. Simon Drake, left Tuesday for the former home of Dr. and Mrs. Drake at Norway, Me.

WEYMOUTH GAZETTE.

Friday, May 17, 1895.

The resignation of N. W. Garrison as a member of the Board of Education has been withdrawn, and the work of the department goes on in regular order.

In a recent address Department Commander Thayer of the U. G. R. said: "Our object is to teach, where possible, at least, to discourage so-called sports" on Memorial Day. It would seem as if the author of the address had no number to satisfy the most ardent lover of base ball, bicycle racing or horses racing and driving, and the like, which were infringing upon Memorial Day ceremonies. As we approach Memorial Day, it is a day on which we should be thinking of the dead, the wives, mothers and friends of those who have given their lives for their country. Let us honor the memory of the brave heroes of the late war?

The High School Field Day.

The South High school athletic team came away with the first place in the field day of the North and High schools held Saturday p.m., May 11, at the Weymouth High School.

The meeting arrangements for which had been pending for some time, proved a complete success, and the weather was favorable, especially in the dashes and runs to which the teams were put.

The games were very lively. A nearly five hours' program, including a large sprinkling of athletics, was presented and closed on the notes.

South Weymouth Items.

Institutes vs. Cambridge Reds, Saturday, at 3 o'clock.

Bridge B. Nash, thirteen years old, son of William Nash, is probably the youngest stockholder in the Braintree & Weymouth street car company. He purchased one share last week.

—The fire alarm rang in from box 51 Saturday afternoon proved to have been occasioned by a bird's nest in the eaves outside the walls of the St. Francis Xavier church. The loss is estimated to have been $500.

—Milt O'Shea, who has been living at C. H. Tinkham's, has removed to Boston.

—Humphrey Bowley, who failed to claim his tricycle which he had lost Tuesday for raising a disturbance. Humphrey had been threatening to pull the handle of his wife's bicycle to Jamaica ginger jar and was in ostentatious position of several feet above the ground, threatening to shoot off his mouth if nothing more.

—“What a roar!” is the sign in Gordon's Millinery, which is attached to some very coarse running pants.

—Matt O'Dowd, the well known barber, has been on a visit to Manchester since Saturday.

—The stables at the Weymouth Driving Park have been let for the season by Col. John D. Draper and H. H. Foster.

—Shaw's western wear, located at 100 Main Street, is now open.

—The stores of the Weymouth Fire Department are open again.

—The fountain in Columbian square looks though it had been struck by a tall end of a comet. At about 4 p.m. Tuesday, on the fountain, came the first drop of water from the fountain.

—The fire at the Weymouth Driving Park have been let for the season by Col. John D. Draper and H. H. Foster.

Weak, Irritable, Tired

"I Was No Good on Earth."

Dr. Miles' Nervine strengthens the weak, builds up the broken down constitution, and puts energy into every system. It has no disagreeable taste or smell. "About one year ago I was afflicted with nervousness, sleeplessness, Creeping sensation in my legs, Slight palpitation, and a general confusion of the mind. Serious loss or lapse of memory. Weighted down with care and anxiety, I could not sleep, and felt my vitality waning away. My weight increased to 160 lbs. I was weak, irritable and tired. My weight had gone to 160 lbs. I was not good on earth."

A friend brought me Dr. Miles' book, "New Health, Part 1, and I finally decided to try a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Before I had taken the bottle I could not sleep, but after taking a 30-oz. old boy. My appetite returned perfectly. When I had taken the sixth bottle My weight increased to 170 lbs. The sensation in my legs gone; my memory was fully restored. My health seemed clearer than ever. I feel as good as any man on earth. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a great medicine. I assure you."

Augusta, Me. WALTER H. BURMAN.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold in a positive quantity of 16 oz. and 30 oz.

All druggists sell it at $1.60 for 16 oz. or $2.00 for 30 oz.

Order from Dr. Miles' Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

"The new buildings began in New York City during the last four months will cost $2,500,000, which is considerably more than double the value of the building operations in the same period of a year ago when the record was set for the record for the year 1893."

The largest gold coin in existence is worth about $315. It is the "log" or "lump" of Anna and its value is written on the coin with India ink.

At a special meeting in Hyde Park, Dr. Miles decided by a vote of 226 to 189 not to purchase the plant of the Hyde Park Water Company. It lacked 44 votes of the required two thirds majority to carry it.

We feel relieved — the tax is a thing of the past being thrown off by the Legislature — that it did not agree with the constituents of persons having over $600 income.

The House by a vote of 32 to 80 has introduced a bill that no person shall sell intoxicating liquors to a woman to be drunk on the premises.

If wrong to sell, why not as wrong to sell to females? if right to sell to a male why should a female not have the same privilege of stepping to the bar and having a drink?

To the Beach.

There are rumors in the air that there will be an electric line to the Beach this season after all. But just who, or what, or where, or when, or what, or how, etc., announced. We want the outlet to the shore and hope the rumors will be verified.

Real Estate.

Charles Howard Smith has just sold on Western Avenue "Hill Hill" the very pretty new summer cottage and about 8000 feet of land owned by George N. Faught to Catherine D. Carter wife of J. Edward Carter of Boston. Mr. Carter will occupy this as his summer residence.

Moratorium Day.

Reynolds, the Post Master, will meet in Weymouth at 9 o'clock on the morning of Memorial Day, where they will form and march to the Old North cemetery.

After the usual ceremony of decorating the graves of departed comrades, they will proceed to the cemetery and pay their tributes to those who rest in the village cemetery; thence to the Catholic cemetery near the Town house. After the exercises here, dinner will be served at the Town house.

After an hour's rest, the Post will proceed to the Highland cemetery at South Weymouth, and from there to Mt. Hope. Having concluded the decorations at the latter place, carriages will be taken for Fairmount Park, where the services will be held. The grounds will be entered via the Pleasant street gate and when the decoration and other exercises are completed, the line will proceed over Cedar and High streets to Commercial Square where Dress Parade

On Sunday May 25, at 2:00 p.m. the Post will attend services in the Union Congregational church South Weymouth. Rev. J. V. Clancy will deliver the address.

Memorial evening, Capt. Nathan Appleton will be present in the Opera House, East Weymouth. The public is invited. Singing will be furnished by a choir of school children.

The Coming Celebration.

Preparations are being made for a grand celebration on June 1st, the opening and opening of the electric road to South Weymouth. The date is not set but the 1st of June is the most likely time. Just everything will be in readiness although the road will be operated before that as now.

Governor Greenhalgh, Lieut. Gov. Wood, Congressmen, Clergymen and a long list of others will be present to lay the official stones of the neighboring street railroads.

The Weymouth people are invited to decorate and to make the day a holiday as far as they can.

The Weymouth band has been engaged to furnish music.

Father de la Rue will be announced later, when the date is set, but preparations can be made in advance for the deconsecration.

The procession will be a mile in length if all come who are expected and it will be especially at South Weymouth. Let all join.

The expenses of the celebration are not to be borne by the town, but by ratepayers and those who have a nice carriage and can furnish it the day is requested to do so.

Per order, Josiah Bass, Committee.

Testimonials.

The grand testimonial concert and ball attended Mr. John Cohen, a popular young man of this place, who has been ill for a long time, and is still not well. On Friday evening, there was an audience of 500 people at the concert, from Weymouth, Quincy, Rockland, Abington, Quincy, Randolph, Holbrook, Weymouth, etc.

The concert was given by local talent and consisted of specialties by Dan Hale, violin; Mr. John C. Fawley, organ; Mr. E. C. Lester, impersonator; readings by Mrs. James Dow and Miss Annie Ash; vocal selections by Mr. Frank L. Hayes, Mr. Frank Martell, contralto; and Mr. Thomas O'Connell, baritone; piano solo by Miss Alice F. Hayes; violin solo by Mr. Frank Martell, conductor; Thomas F. Aherne, popular Irish comedian; Thomas F. Aherne, and Mr. Frank L. Hayes.

After the concert dancing was indulged in until late at night. John C. Fawley and his director assisted by James Neilligan and Charles F. Miller with an efficient orchestra, and a large number of young people. The following reception committee booked the guests: John F. Dwyer, F. P. Hayes, Frank L. Hayes, Frank Martell, W. Alers, J. Donavan, John Cole, John Croft and Richard Seelye.

Medical Surgical Surgeon.

The most important and unusually delicate case that I ever saw is a small child in which there is kept six separate surgical instruments — minute blood letting apparatus of the most approved pattern. The Dr. Louis Rebello describes them as follows:

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

The following notice will be given to the management of the paper distinctly discriminating between the two papers expressed:

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1895.

Editor of GAZETTE. Dear Sir —

In your edition of May 31, I noticed an appeal for aid for sufferers in Nebraska and as it gives the state a rank injustice we are compelled to write you a word or two to try to offset a part of the damage it has no doubt done.

We all know, and there is no use in denying it, that the winter of 1894-95 was a severe one, and it was the worst winter in the history of the state, and the hot winds which prevailed in July, it is not necessary for the people of this state to appeal to those in any other states for aid in the manner in which they did, and we are sure that the people of the other states will be willing to help us.

The reason of suffering, is that north of us and located in the sand hills, a location where a good crop was never had.

Our people in this state have repeatedly suffered from the cold, clothing, grain and food, and still doing so as far as I can learn the state is ample able to help her for destitution.

The Old Fellows and Knights of Pythias have been doing a noble work in aiding the poor in this state, and I am sure that they will continue to do so.

It is a fact that the people of this state are not to be distributed and are still helping them.

Mind, I do not say there is no distress, and no need of aid, for there is or has been, but the people are already here to help him.

If wrong to sell, why not as wrong to sell to a female? if right to sell to a male why should a female not have the same privilege of stepping to the bar and having a drink?

Paster Resigns.

Rev. Dr. A. J. Patterson, D. D. of Roxbury occupied the pulpit at the First Universalist church Sunday, and the pastor was surprised at the close of the sermon, when he read a letter from Rev. Mr. T. M. Parker, pastor of the First Universalist church, Boston. Many of the members of the congregations were visited, and notwithstanding he had been ill health for some time, his resignation was a perfect surprise. Mr. Morrison's resignation takes effect at once.

ABOUT US.

Measles in Quincy!
Trouble in Sharon's fire department.

Congressman Morse has appointed Ernest Haskell of Bridgewater to fill the vacant seat.

A huge granite shaft weighing about 35 tons was taken from Hitchcock's quarry on Wednesday. This shaft will be used in manufacturing a monument to the late John Q. McDonnell, who is buried in Buffalo, N. Y.—Quincy Advertiser.

"I can assure you that we will have the pleasure of giving you a complete explanation of the whole affair."

From Holliston to Neck Neck before July 4th"—Pres. Graham of the Quincy and Boston Stock Exchange.

The blossoms cannot tell what becomes of the odor, and no man can tell what becomes of his example, but we are away from him, and are not to blame for his pernicious misdeeds."—H. W. Beecher.

It is believed that the cars upon the Nantasket branch can be run at a rate of about 30 miles an hour.

Mrs. Elizabeth S. Thobie told of the great need of missionary work in the country town and village of New England, and New Haven, Connecticut.

Mrs. Thobie must have referred to the prominent citizens who block our side in the campaign from Montgomery, Ala.

We read farther on that the celebrated Dr. H. C. T. S. secured 120 signatures to the petition sent to the Police Commission, asking that no licenses be granted in New Haven. The request was granted.

It reported that 5,000 men, women and children and steady work in the factories in this country, earning annually, over $250,000,000.

It is not generally known among Protectors that there is a day in each year upon which Sisters of Charity may renounce their vows and return to the world.

According to the "Whitman Times" such is the case, and the vows are renewed each year.

A number of public bath houses will be erected along the roads of the Housatonic or Houghton's post at the foot of the Great Blue Hill, this summer.

It is not known among Protectors that the function of an American mother is to be ever guiding, inspiring, and the personal example of her to help her son, her son's fan and her dress, and to make her home so pleasant that they carry from it the knowledge how to have a home supply of celery during the entire nine months of the celery season.

WEYMOUTH GAZETTE,

Friday, May 31, 1895.

Please Take Notice.

During the months of June, July and August our office will close on Saturday afternoons at 5 o'clock, in accordance with the custom of past years.

Today's summer sky so soft and bewitching lured everyone into the open air and crowds of people followed the soldiers, as they placed their memory in memory of the past, but however many the seasons or years, there are events in history which are so marked that they will never be lost sight of, and each succeeding generation will continue to observe anniversaries and memorial days that the veterans and participants of them will forever immortalize.

The period from early in 1861 to late in 1865 in our nation's history, will be one of more strife and greater suffering than any other and probably than all of the others, and it is but a fitting tribute to the memory of those who gave so much, on the altar of their country that we should pause now and then to think of them and scatter fresh green grass over their resting places.

The cemeteries were in good order all showed that much care had been taken to bring them into so fit a condition. The band played dirges until the graves of the heroes and of the fallen were covered with a wreath of flowers above the sleeping soldier dead. It was all a reverent and solemn occasion.

A few years ago a traveller discovered that the beautiful story of William Tell and the apple was a myth. On a recent Sunday we got four different versions of one of the most thrilling stories in New Testament, in the morning and in the evening we were told that one of those beautiful Psalms, in which childhood we were taught came from the inspired David, must have been written two or three hundred years after the time of Christ.

We are told that one of the enumerators skips all those who cannot answer the above questions in plain English. This is no time for skipping. Weymouth has much at stake in this question and while we are still in ignorance of the facts or enumerations this is the year when everything should count with the assessors, and the enumerators should be even more particular, and if we have got 12,000 inhabitants let us know it. What is the good of going to bed after dark, and having populations about the same as it was ten, twenty or thirty years ago?

A Call.

There will be a meeting of the Weymouth Yacht Club in the Club houses, on Saturday, June 1, at 5.30 P.M. As large an attendance as possible is requested.

Per order of the Commodore,
Troy P. Willey,
Secretary.

Hotel Monatiquot Open.
We call the attention of our readers this week to the ad. of the Taber Hotel Company, announcing the opening of Hotel Monatiquot at Ferry Point, North Weymouth.

It is a long distance to find a more convenient or comfortable place for boating, sea bathing or to get a good, nice shower.

The Electric Road.
The electric road has now reached the Copley Square and is speedily winding its way toward Lovell's Corner and East Weymouth. At the time of writing the rails were laid in front of the residence of Elbridge Nash and the work is being done in the neighborhood of the old from Nash's residence in South Braintree nothing remains to be done but to string the wire, the poles having been set the whole distance. The work of setting the poles on Main and Columbus streets will probably be completed next week, and will take but a short time to do the remaining work, from that there is no reason why the car from Braintree and Weymouth should not be running very soon.

Weymouth Club Opened.
Saturday evening the rooms over Vaughan's store were ready for the inspection of the club members and about fifty were present. The large hall looked very pretty with the new maple floor, the freshly painted brick, newly papered walls, electric chandeliers, the new oak tables, chairs, and pool table.

Every evening since, the rooms have been well filled with members who enjoy games of high-dice, whist, cribbage, pool, etc.

The regular business meeting of the club was held Tuesday evening. There are now about seventy-five members and many now ones are expected to join.

Testimonial Concert.
The musical friends of Miss Edna M. Goolden will tender her a testimonial concert at Town Hall, Braintree, Monday evening, June 3. Miss Goolden needs no introduction to the people of Braintree and Weymouth, but for those who have not for the past six years, and is well known to the public by her sweet soprano singing in the church choirs of both towns. Among the many volunteers we notice the name of Mr. and Mrs. Quinton of Weymouth, who are widely known throughout the New England states for their refined and classical singing; also Mr. Louis Poole, violinist of Poole's orchestra; Mr. Wm. H. Chambers, cornetist; of Rice's 1492 Co.; Mr. Ed. H. Fry, humorist and impersonator; Mr. Ed. Howlett, comedian.

Change in Pier Number.
The Fall Line wharf in New York, with, commencing June 1st, known as Pier 18, instead of 28 North River, foot of Murray street.

Double service (two boats each) way between New York and Fall River will be operated, commencing June 15th.

Low rate excursions West, via Nickel Plate Road—Elegant Dining Car Service on all trains. 5-5

Could Not Walk

Rheumatism in Hips and Back

Eyesight Affected but Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures All.

"I was troubled with pains in my back and hips. My eyes swelled so that I could not see for two or three weeks. I became so weak I could not walk at times. The rheumatism had set a hold on me. I was expected to get well. At last I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first bottle helped my appetite and helped the second for the second was all gone my back was a great deal better and the pain had left my hips. I have now taken over five bottles and I am as well as ever."

Free From Rheumatism
as I had never been afflicted with it. I shall continue to use Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
for I believe I own my life to it. Miss Gardner, Mass.

N.B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla it should not be induced to take any other instead. Inslit upon Hood's.

Hood's Pills cure all liverills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache, etc.

Memorial Day.
The anniversary of the day gone which never another year comes with the seasonal ages of the past, but however many the seasons or years, there are events in history which are so marked that they will never be lost sight of, and each succeeding generation will continue to observe anniversaries and memorial days that the veterans and participants of them will forever immortalize.

BASE BALL.

Tufts 14; Institutes 4.

It was a sorrowful crowd that attended the first game of the season on the Institute grounds. The ball was not to be had, so the Tufts College nine to the tune of 11 to 4. Defeat was anticipated, for the boys had not played together this season, while their opponents have been playing twice a week ever since the opening of April and consequently were in great form.

The Institute players put up a splendid game in the field, and though Kiley's leg was a blemish, he did a better job than his opponents. Defeat was anticipated, for the boys had not played together this season, while their opponents have been playing twice a week ever since the opening of April and consequently were in great form.

The Institutes were the first at the bat, Murphy hit a grounder to Maguire, Pitts banged the ball to Richardson, who fell on his back in time to catch the runner at first. Stuck went out Richardson to Kiley.

For Tufts, Corrigan sent a hot one through Kiley's legs and Maguire followed it with a ground past third. Pierce hit to Murphy and was safe at first. Smith was presented with a base on balls. Corrigan sent a short one to the right, and the ball was dropped by Kiley, who fell on his back in time to catch the runner at first. Stuck went out Richardson to Kiley.

Corrigan waited for his base on balls, Maguire smashed a two-bagger into left field, taking second on Cleary's unsuccessful effort to reach the base. Kiley struck out to Smith, who fell on his back in time to catch the runner at first. Stuck went out Richardson to Kiley.

AN IDYL OF THE SEA.

change came to me. I had kept you writing notes why I could only guess at the same reason that prompts the crippled soldier to keep the bullet that has disabled him. I read and re-read the hateful words until every one of them was burned into my brain. Then came tender thoughts of you. I thought that you must have been laboring under some delusion that it was not in your power to lay your soul at your feet, and then to trample upon it merely to show your power! There must be a mistake somewhere, I thought. So I turned my back upon the old world and hastened home to find you and have it explained. I went to your father's house; it was closed and the servants were away. Finally went to the sea, the season being the time when I knew where, but thought at Bar Harbor. A friend of your father's whom I met said that you were among the mountains somewhere. So I came here to wait, as patiently as I could, until it was time for you to return to your home.

That is how I came to be here at Brant Rock. This afternoon as the shower was falling I lay upon the rocks, alone and lonely, and to lay the heavy air of luxury there was nothing to do but to let the waves wash over me. The spirit of Marie Antoinette or of Pompadour breathes from the interior. It is all roses and blue ribbons.

Nowadays the bunch of peacock feathers, the vase of pink silk covered with lace.

The spirit of Marie Antoinette or of Pompadour breathes from the interior. It is all roses and blue ribbons.

The personal element in furnishing is an important factor. The literary young lady fits up her room with furniture of antique pieces, while the boyish lad, with a tiled fireplace and brass engravings, and a Sevres writing-table, "simple, but sturdy," one says on entering. If she is a fashionable girl, her room is filled with the prettiest vases, the easiest and the brown curtain embroidered in sunflowers are conspicuous by their absence.

The chief charm of an artistic interior is that, in spite of its richness, it is like a homestead. The chairs are easy, the tables are hospitably drawn. Books, photographs and engravings are on tables, and although one is breathing the heavy air of luxury there is nothing to do but to let the waves wash over me.

The decorations try to efface themselves, just as persons of the highest breeding do. The sofa, the chair, the bed, are harmonious.

Everything is breathing the air of luxury there is nothing to do but to let the waves wash over me.

"I am stopping here with my mother and quite a large party of friends," she replied. "I have been sent out here to get rid of my mother, with others; but I have no time to go to the sea, the fancy seized me to steal off by myself, without the knowledge of any one. I sat down here to listen to the waves and very foolishly stopped too long. I think I must have been dreaming. There were others when I came, but they were strangers to me, and I did not know them. My mother is at the Churchill house, thinks without doubt that I am with friends at one of the cottages. But come, we can not go now!"

"Impossible! It will be nearly midnight before we can get off comfortably. In the meantime I want to know why you sent me that note. There is any mystery that can help you out, and if you will not let me go, I will. If you did it merely from a love of conquest, and that you might boast among your friends of your achievement, go your way and reap what glory you can from your victory! I will never trouble you more!"

No answer came, or, if there did, it was drowned in the tumult of the wind and waves.

"Why did you do it?" he repeated.

"I have a right to know, and I demand it!"

"Hugh Faulkner?" she replied.

"Do you think I do not know the base and sellish part that you were playing? That God, I found you out before it was too late!"

She could not see his face distinctly, but unfeigned astonishment was in his voice as he questioned her.

"Are you not laboring under a mistake?"

"There could be no mistake!" she replied. "I heard your cruel words with my own ears! And unwilling to accept, even that evidence, I leaned far out from my window, and looked down upon you as you stood there in the full light of the moon, and uttered your base, unmanly sentiments. I was soothed with shame and anger, and I would have denounced you on the spot!"

"What do you mean?" he repeated.

"I do not understand you!"

"If the memory of your heartless deceit is so pleasant to you I will repeat your words; for I remember them as though it were but this day that they were spoken. I am by nature timid and often weak, but I am not afraid of anything that seems so bright before me, and thanking God that he had given me the love of so noble and true a heart as yours, when footsteps were heard outside and the sound of voices reached my ear. Two men were passing slowly along, and paused just beneath my window, so near that I could hear each other and touch the eggs in it; then pour into the flour, add a teaspoonful of salt and work for ten minutes. Roll the dough until it is thoroughly kneaded and browned.

Scalded Potatoes.

Cut cold boiled potatoes very thin and small. Place a quantity of them in a basin with salt, pepper and little bits of butter. Cover with a gill of cream or very rich milk, grate bread crumbs over the potatoes, season again with salt and pepper and small bits of butter and bake until golden brown in a oven.

Spinach, English Style.

Blanch some young spinach, boil some water, adding sufficient salt. After the water boils add a quantity of the spinach and cover with a tight nickel cover. Let the water boil and when it is done, season, the cover having been screwed on tight, the cup is placed in a saucer of water and held a minute or two longer than would be necessary for an egg to the same degree is served. Turn the bowl upside down, the weight of the body is then on the handles of the pedestal, and instead of the foot that drives the pedestal around swiftly, the foot turns it round, the bowl is turned over, and the foot flies off just when it is most desirable that it should stay on.

At the WORLD'S FAIR.

This is the real name of the pedestal, a bird that lives on the sea. The harder it storms the better he likes it, and the more it plays with the waves.
